I think that it was just a wonderful experience for me because as you already know I was the first woman in practically all of these positions and it was just a wonderful experience for me. And I think that it just [pauses] and sometimes it humbled me to feel that I was the first woman to be in that position. But it also it made me want to achieve so much more for the other women because I realized that I was a role model for the other women and I wanted I wanted to work so hard so that I could be an example for them and so that I could prove to them that if I could achieve that, then they could achieve it for themselves. And I wanted them to know that they also could achieve that position if I could do it then they could do it too.
