Thinking

A Busy Day at the Post Office

- What times of the year might be especially busy at a post office?
- How do you think mail gets from place to place?
- Why might some packages cost more than others to send?
- What are some other ways to communicate with people who are far away? How is postal mail different from other types of communication?

If I put up a mailbox, will people send me treats?

Art by David Coulson.