1859 ½r orange, fine impressions with no dividing lines
COLLECTION SCOPE & CONTENT

The collection consists of 2 volumes of stamps and covers from Venezuela from 1859 - 1876 and one volume of La Guairá local stamps.

PROVENANCE

The specialized collection of Venezuela was anonymously donated on October 1, 1976 (Accession Number 322750 & 322761) and on December 22, 1961 (Accession Number 240340).

NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION

The first two albums include the early issues of Venezuela (Scott 1 – 20) and their overprints (Scott 40 - 48). These albums also include reconstructed rows and full sheets. The third album contains the local post from La Guairá, with the exception of the La Guairá Numeral Issues and Jesurun Issue from Curacao. Plating studies and reconstructed rows and sheets are also seen in this album.

Michel Postal Stationery of the World Collection

COLLECTION SCOPE & CONTENT

The Michel Postal Stationery of the World Collection consists of 143 volumes and several boxes of mint and used worldwide Postal Stationery, Postal Cards, Envelopes, Letter Sheets, and Newspaper Wrappers from 1845 - 1940.

PROVENANCE

The Michel Postal Stationery of the World Collection was bequeathed to the Smithsonian Institution by A. Eugene Michel and acquired in 1940 (Accession Number 152441).

NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION

Worldwide Postal Stationery, Postal Cards, Envelopes, Letter Sheets, Newspaper Wrappers (both used and unused) are in this outstanding collection of government issued postal stationery compiled by A. Eugene Michel. It was a bequest to the Smithsonian Institution in 1940. It fills 143 volumes and several boxes which together total over forty thousand objects representing fifty years of intensive and cumulative effort. At the time of its donation, it was ninety-seven percent complete.

Prominent European philatelists had placed the Michel Collection among the world’s best five of its kind. It offers exceptional opportunities for study of cancellations, postal routings, paper textures, watermarks, sizes and trims, and handwriting during the past one hundred and fifty years. Some of its rarities were formerly in the collection of the late Count Ferrary.
