The Trans-Mississippi Exposition Commemorative Stamp Issue and National Identity

Tessa Sabol

September 30, 2010
The Trans-Mississippi Exposition Issue of 1898
Thomas Moran, Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, 1872
Trans-Mississippi Exposition Grand Court, 1898
Native American Relations
Marquette on the Mississippi

William Lamprecht, Father Marquette and the Indians, 1867
Indian Hunting Buffalo

George Catlin, The Buffalo Hunt, c. 1832

Seth Eastman, Buffalo Chase, c. 1849
Frederic Remington, On the Skirmish Line, 1894

Frederic Remington, A Meeting with the US Calvary
Farming in the West

Amenia and Sharon Land Co., c. 1893
Western Mining Prospects

Frederic Remington, The Gold Bug
Western Cattle in Storm

James MacWhirter, The Vanguard, 1887
Westward Expansion
Mississippi River Bridge

Ticket Stub for Republican National Convention, 1896
Hardships of Emigration

Family Emigrating West, c. 1886, Loup Valley, NE
Fremont on the Rocky Mountains

Poster for John C. Fremont, Republican candidate for President in 1856
The Trans-Mississippi Exposition Issue of 1898

[Images of various postage stamps from the Trans-Mississippi Exposition Issue of 1898]
Many thanks to Dr. Franklin Noll, Dr. Frank Goodyear, Jacquelyn Wilson, and the entire staff of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing’s Historical Resource Center.