

FURTHER RESOURCES

Additional information on the objects and themes highlighted in the Postmarks & Paperbacks program can be found in the following articles, exhibitions, books, and blogposts.

Blogpost from the British Postal Museum about love letters

Love Letters from the Stonington Historical Society

Love Letter Stamp

Real-life Ball Invitation

War of 1812 Letter

Letter from this period, pre-postage stamps

Mail-delivering stagecoach

Pride and

Prejudice

Smithsonian
National Postal Museum

Books in the Postal Museum Library about love letters:

“Love letters” by Arnold Adoff ; illustrated by Lisa Desimini.

“The greatest trials I ever had : the Civil War letters of Margaret and Thomas Cahill” edited by Ryan W. Keating.

“Love letters from the Civil War” edited by John B. & Donna L. Chapman.

“The heart in the glass jar : love letters, bodies, and the law in Mexico” by William E. French.

“The post-boy robb'd of his mail, or, The paquet broke open : consisting of letters of love and gallantry, and all miscellaneous subjects : in which are discover'd the vertues, vices, follies, humours and intrigues of mankind. With remarks on each letter.” By Charles Gildon.

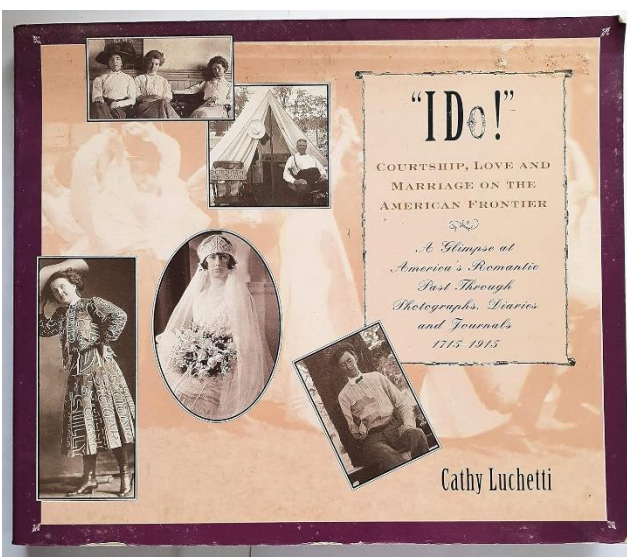

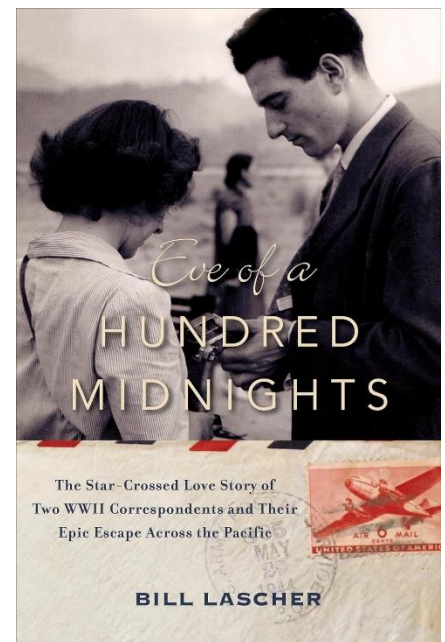

“Eve of a hundred midnights : the star-crossed love story of two WWII correspondents and their epic escape across the Pacific” by Bill Lascher.

“I do! : cortship, love, and marriage on the American frontier : a glimpse at America's romantic past through photographs, diaries, and journals, 1715-1915” by Cathy Luchetti.

“For the love of letters : a 21st-century guide to the art of letter writing” by Samara O'Shea.

“Letters of love and war : a World War II correspondence” by Helen Dann Stringer.

“A death at Crooked Creek : the case of the cowboy, the cigarmaker, and the love letter” by Marianne Wesson.

“Communication of love : mediatized intimacy from love letters to SMS : interdisciplinary and historical studies” edited by Eva Lia Wyss.