“What a Perfect Christmas”

Transcript provided by Smithsonian National Postal Museum

[Piano music]

Woman singing: Hear Santa’s sleigh bells tinkling sound, while carol singers gather ‘round. Swirling snowflakes fluff the ground; what a perfect Christmas. Like old man winter’s cherry nose, each tiny face just beams and glows, tucked in bed with snuggly toes; what a perfect Christmas. Here’s a cute fat doll, a bright red bike. You’ll get what you asked for; maybe. Here’s a robe for dad I hope he’ll like and mittens for the baby. The other gifts beneath our tree were mailed on time and properly; ZIP Code plainly marked to see. Oh! What a perfect, what a perfect Christmas!
